Frontier Launches Five Low-Cost Flights from San Jose, Calif.; Fares as low as $69

San Jose, Calif. - Low-fare carrier, Frontier Airlines, is growing at Mineta San Jose International Airport (SJC) with five new non-stop routes starting this April. These new non-stop flights will bring the number of destinations Frontier serves in San Jose to seven.

The airline is celebrating the new service with fares as low as $69.

New Service:

Atlanta - April, 9
Austin - April, 8
Cincinnati - April, 8
San Antonio - April, 9
Tulsa - April, 11

“The greater San Jose community has embraced our unique brand of Low Fares Done Right and helped us to grow our service from Mineta San Jose International Airport,” said Richard Oliver, Spokesperson, Frontier Airlines. “We are delighted to reduce the cost of flying to and from San Jose and the Bay Area even more with these five new flights. With new low fares to great destinations, we look forward to enabling more people to fly to San Jose and the Bay Area.”

“We are thankful to Frontier Airlines for responding to Silicon Valley travelers’ requests for ultra-low-cost-fares and more in-demand destinations,” said SJC Director of Aviation John Aitken. “Service to these five additional cities and the convenient travel times offered will be favorably received by our community.”

Frontier is focused on offering customers real choice and the ability to customize their travel to their needs and budget. For example, customers can purchase travel options like bags and seat selections either a la carte or in one low-priced bundle called the WORKSsm. The Works bundle is considered one of the best values in the industry and offers customers full refundability, a carry-on bag, a checked bag, the best available seat (including exit rows and Stretch seating), waived change fees and priority boarding for as low as $59 each way. The Works is only available at FlyFrontier.com.
